

Shift and Succeed

Something for you, Subscriber First Name

Co-Active Coaching with Avonnet

View Website

I remember, during a teaching assignment, a little boy with special needs saying, "Your breath stinks." It was after a lunch of tuna, and he had called me over to help him with his math problems. I was leaning over him as we were both looking at his problems when he made this statement. He then went right back to working on his math. The innocence of it struck me. His statement held no judgment or shaming, just a simple fact.

---

FRI, DEC 03

Fun Fund Raising

I was a young woman in my early 20's, a young bride and was going to make more money in my new job, then made sense to me.....

Read More

